

Cassandra Markland passed away unexpectedly on Jan 17, 2017 at her home in Boston. Cassandra was well known at the Boston Resource Center (part of the Metro Boston Recovery learning Community). She participated in many Transformation Center Activities including Blacks United in Recovery, The Massachusetts Leadership Academy, Affinity and Allies Training, and the Certified Peer Specialist Training. Cassandra's vibrant personality and willingness to extend a supportive hand to all will be greatly missed.