

Are you in recovery from substance misuse and unemployed?

Have you wanted to learn more about becoming a Recovery Coach?

Are you Latino? Cape Verdean or African American? A Veteran? Do you have a disability?

Training-to-Work Candidates Wanted!

WELCOME TO THE FUTURE

Free Training for People in Recovery

You May Be Eligible For:

- An 8 to 10 month training and work readiness program to build professional skills needed to work in health care, clinical, or human services settings.
- Free job readiness training and educational services for employment as a Recovery Coach.
- “Skills-based” trainings to earn a Recovery Coach certificate and credentials.
- A 5 to 7 month Internship with stipends and support tailored to your needs.
- Job placement services and follow-up support for Graduates, during the first month of employment as a Recovery Coach.

Contact Us About a New Training-to-Work Program in Brockton!

Call: Ginny Mercure, Gandara’s Director of Prevention and Community Services

Tel: (774) 545-9123, or Email: vm Mercure@gandaracenter.org

The Gandara training-to-Work program is provided in collaboration with: Stairway to Recovery, HighPoint Treatment Centers, Brockton Neighborhood Health Center, and Massasoit Community College

